- Maintain accurate and organized records of each patient's transportation details and any relevant medical information
- Collaborate with our team of healthcare professionals to ensure seamless coordination of patient care
- Long-term planning to support the company's goals
- Coordinating different teams to foster an exchange of ideas and provide cross-team learning opportunities
- Assessing and analyzing departmental budgets to find ways to optimize profitability
- Inspiring and motivating employees through positive encouragement and incentive initiatives
- Communicating with leadership about shifting company priorities and projects
- Identifying potential problems and points of friction and finding solutions to maximize efficiency and revenue
- Identifying opportunities to expand or shift course based on market changes
- Enforcing regulatory and safety standards
- Responsible for all operations within their office location
- Employee relations including hiring, scheduling and counseling
- Upholding all company policies
- Travel to different facilities as needed
- If you have a valid EMT license, you may be required to work on the truck from time to time if needed
- The duties above are a non-exhaustive list. Additional duties may be assigned by leadership as needed

Qualifications:

- Valid EMT certification/license
- Proficient knowledge of medical protocols and emergency procedures
- Professionally driven and patient-focused with excellent communication skills

Job Description: Operations Manager (continued)

- Ability to remain composed, professional and empathetic in all situations
- Valid driver's license with a clean driving record
